IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, as stated in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the joint recommendation, the Defendant's supervised release be modified as follows:

The defendant shall submit to home detention, with electronic monitoring or other location verification system, for a period of up to 30 days at the direction of the U.S. Probation Officer. During this time, the defendant shall remain at his residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation officer. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at the place of residence without any call forwarding, caller ID, call waiting, modems, answering machines, cordless telephones or other special services for the above period.
